Adrian Julian Bullock

Adrian J Bullock is a native of Raleigh, NC. He is a graduate of William G Enloe High School (2014, diploma); North Carolina Central University (2018, Bachelor of Business Administration); and Campbell University Divinity School (2022, Master of Divinity). Adrian is also continuing his education at Fayetteville Technical Community College to obtain a license in Funeral Services.

Adrian Bullock has served in the following capacities: Black Seminarian Union, Campbell Divinity School (co-founder and first president) ; Widow's Son Masonic Lodge #4 PHA Raleigh, NC-Lodge Historian; Ruth #2 Order of the Eastern Stars; Prince Hall Grand Lodge of NC-Assistant Regional Director of the Knights of Pythagoras, youth organization.

In his adolescent years, Minister Bullock traveled across the state of North Carolina in his recitation of Dr. Martin Luther King's famous "I Have a Dream" speech. His recitation along with his gift of oratory has awarded him several acknowledgements.

He is actively involved in ministry work. In 2018, Adrian Bullock was a featured preacher during the Preaching Under Forty session of the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina 150th Annual Session. He serves as liaison for GBSCNC Young Preachers' Network which launched in January 2021. He is also a member of the National Academy of Preachers and a featured article contributor of the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. He is a 2020 recipient of the 25 Young Leaders to Know Award of the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship Convention. He has also been featured in its 2020 spring and winter editions of the Gathering, CBFNC official magazine. He is also team leader for "Growing Stronger" a social justice program within CBFNC designed to engage students from Historically Black and Baptist Colleges from across the state of North Carolina. In September 2023 he accepted the position of Triangle Area Campus Minister for the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship of North Carolina. In this role he serves on the Baptist Campus Minister for Duke University, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, North Carolina State University, and North Carolina Central University. He previously served as intern to CBSF NCCU and interim campus minister for CBSF UNC and Duke University. Adrian also serves on the Racial Justice Team for CBFNC.

Adrian J. Bullock received his ministerial license in August of 2015 from his home church, Watts Chapel Missionary Baptist Church of Raleigh, NC under the mentoring and guidance of his "spiritual father", Rev. Dr. Harry L White, Jr. Adrian Bullock recently passed the ordination catechism through the Wake Missionary Baptist Association and was ordained on Sunday, August 21, 2022 at his home church. In September 2022 Rev. Bullock was elected senior pastor of Beaver Dam Missionary Baptist Church in Clinton, NC. His tenure began on January 1, 2023. Above all, Adrian believes in following the Commission of Christ, and expressing the love of Christ to God's people.
